

INVENTING AMERICAN TELECOMMUNICATIONS

“Telegraphs for the 1 Percent, Telephones for the People: How America Became a Network Nation”

Wednesday, April 23, 2014 • 7 p.m.

This Author Talk by Richard John will trace how the telegraph and telephone transformed America by proving instantaneous communication between widely separated locations.

Admission free, reservations requested, contact Carol Lockman at (302) 658-2400, ext. 243, or clockman@hagley.org. Use Hagley’s Buck Road East entrance off Route 100 in Wilmington, Delaware.

Image: Detail from Network Nation by Richard John.